

Pitt County School-School Psychologist and School Psychology Intern positions

Pitt County Schools serves the students of Greenville, NC and surrounding communities. Pitt County is conveniently located approximately midway between the North Carolina coast and the state capital. Greenville is home to East Carolina University and Medical School, and the community offers a host of local resources, cultural events, and attractions. Pitt County is a dynamic public school system, dedicated to providing services and supports that result in the best outcomes for the young people of our community. The school system currently serves more than 24,000 students in 38 schools and is continuing to see annual growth in its student population. We are accepting applications for School Psychologists and School Psychologist Interns for 10-month salaried positions.
