

Pitt County Schools Full-Time School Psychologist Positions

Pitt County Schools serves the students of Greenville, NC and surrounding communities. Pitt County is conveniently located approximately midway between the North Carolina coast and the state capital. Greenville is home to East Carolina University and Medical School, and the community offers a host of local resources, cultural events, and attractions. Pitt County is a dynamic public school system, dedicated to providing services and supports that result in the best outcomes for the young people of our community. The school system currently serves more than 24,000 students in 38 schools and is continuing to see annual growth in its student population. We are currently accepting applications for Full-Time School Psychologists. Pitt County is offering competitive supplemental signing bonuses for School Psychologists as well as reimbursement of annual professional association dues.
